

Earthquakes in Turkey and Syria

Donate now to provide food and shelter to earthquake victims in Turkey and Syria.

Your contribution will enable our schools in Turkey, St. Michel and St. Joseph in Istanbul, St. Joseph in Izmir, and the Marist community in Aleppo, to distribute hot meals, blankets, and humanitarian assistance to the earthquake's displaced victims.

The number of lost, injured, and missing people rises every hour resulting from the earthquake that struck Turkey and Syria on Feb. 6, 2023.

While our schools were not damaged by the earthquake, the Brothers and Lasallian Partners are providing immediate and humanitarian assistance to people in need.

Cooperating with local and national agencies, our schools in Istanbul, St. Michel and St. Joseph, and our St. Joseph school in Izmir, Turkey, are collecting food, blankets, and clothes to bring relief to the affected cities.

Our relief efforts are also helping the Marist Brothers community in Aleppo, Syria, to distribute hot meals, thermal blankets, and other basic aid items to displaced individuals.
