Some universities have expressed the possibility of admitting an exclusive cohort of Brothers and partners to the programs listed above. Moreover, some universities have also signified their openness to provide additional subsidies or significantly reduced tuition to Brothers and partners from less endowed Districts/institutions. For this reason and to assist prospective enrollees, Brothers, and Lasallian partners, in any of these programs, we would appreciate if you could complete this form:

To allow the Consortium to assist prospective enrollees, we invite those interested in enlisting to any of the programs to complete the following form:
